Automate publishing from anywhere.
Superfast!

Keep publishing on track in a world on the go with

Adobe FrameMaker Publishing Server

Remotely automate tasks via a web-accessible dashboard. Publish WYSIWYG PDFs for your DITA, XML, or non-XML content. Use templates and presets for consistent output. Deliver content as Responsive HTML5, PDF, mobile app, EPUB, and more. Efficiently manage high volumes of automation jobs with multiple instances of FrameMaker on one or more systems. Work with leading Content Management Systems (CMSs) out of the box or use web APIs to quickly connect with other CMSs.

Unlock publishing possibilities with FrameMaker Publishing Server

Manage publishing remotely

Redefine anytime, anywhere publishing. Allow multiple users to access publishing services from anywhere, at the same time, just using their web browser. Effortlessly schedule and manage a large number of automation jobs by running multiple instances. Eliminate repetitive publication tasks by scheduling them to be automatically executed once, daily, weekly, or monthly.

Publish DITA content to best-in-class WYSIWYG PDFs

Effortlessly publish your DITA content (ditamap/bookmap) as a WYSIWYG PDF by leveraging enhancements in the powerful DITA engine as well as DITA template customizations. Import and export, make changes, and apply DITA templates for PDF output in a WYSIWYG authoring environment.

Quickly automate repetitive publishing tasks

Work smarter by scheduling tasks to run automatically. Achieve consistent output with templates and presets. Use scripts to format input files in prepublication state. Integrate and schedule the FrameMaker publishing service from your content management system.

Publish your content for any device, format, or screen

Publish to popular output formats like Responsive HTML5, mobile app, PDF, EPUB, Kindle, Microsoft HTML (CHM), Adobe Experience Manager mobile, and basic HTML. Easily generate a WYSIWYG PDF from unstructured (non-XML), XML, and DITA content using easy-to-create PDF templates.

Seamlessly connect with market-leading CMSs

Leverage built-in connectors to industry-leading CMSs like Adobe Experience Manager. Set up integrated publishing workflows for any CMS using web APIs and third-party plug-ins. Publish DITA content to any format using XML Documentation for Adobe Experience Manager.

Success stories that say it all

See how FrameMaker Publishing Server has transformed technical content creation and delivery for individuals and organizations across the globe.

“ Adobe FrameMaker Publishing Server and Miramo empower our global teams to publish content in various formats—including PDF, CHM, HTML, HTML5, and XML—through our content management system, TC Toolbox ”

Silke Köhler,
Process Manager, Technical Publication and Translation at Schneider Electric Automation GmbH.

“ Adobe FrameMaker was already the best overall publishing solution for long, complex documents. Now with its all-new 64 bit architecture, PDF engine, and technology implementation, Adobe FrameMaker (2019 release) and Adobe FrameMaker Publishing Server (2019 release) escalate the document creation bar to greater heights. ”

Ben Slone,
President & CEO, Finite Matters Ltd.

“ For products and applications that leverage the ultra-reliable and versatile Adobe FrameMaker Publishing Server composition engine to produce millions of PDF pages per day for the Dynamic Enterprise Publishing market, Adobe FrameMaker (2019 release) represents a big advance. ”

Joanne Hannagen,
Business Development Manger, Datazone
